

PRESS RELEASE

ANTICIPATION OF HEALTH SERVICE ACTIVITY TO WELCOME AFTA

Karawaci, March 15th, 2009 –Asean Free Trade Area (AFTA) policy which is about to be released in 2010 is affecting many areas, including medical area. In the given time, it would be possible for doctors in ASEAN to open practice in Indonesia or the other way around.

How the doctors condition themselves in welcoming AFTA and what should they do to anticipate the competition will be an interesting and important discussion.

Faculty of Medicine of Universitas Pelita Harapan (FK-UPH) which has become one of the institutions that create doctors for the future will be organizing a seminar entitled “Global Practice: Anticipations & Expectations for Future & Community Service”

The seminar is aimed to find out things that should be done and prepared by Indonesia’s medical professionals in welcoming AFTA period, also, to emphasize general idea of Indonesia’s health service in the AFTA period.

These are those who will be the key speakers in the seminar: Indonesia’s Minister of Health, Dr. dr. Siti Fadilah Supari, SpJP(K), accompanied by dr. Hardi Yusa, SpOG MARS, Ketua KKI (Konsil Kedokteran Indonesia), dr. Kemas M Akib Aman, Sp.Rad, Direktur Bina Pelayanan Medik - Specialist DITJEN Bina Pelayanan Medik Departemen Kesehatan Indonesia, and Deputy of PERSI (Persatuan Rumah Sakit Indonesia).

According to dr. Eka Julianta Wahjoepramono, SpBS, Dean of The Faculty of Medicine of UPH who also will be a moderator in the seminar, “The presence of foreign doctors in Indonesia will give positive, as well as negative, effect in the medical world in this country. Therefore, it is time now to prepare the doctors and doctor candidates by giving out information that are related to AFTA, so they can anticipate and plan their moves.”

The seminar will be held on Sunday, March 15th 2009, at 9.00 until 12.00 in the campus building of UPH Faculty of Medicine, Karawaci. The seminar is open for doctors, medical students, and the public.
