Fast-Track Your Future in Law

Welcome to UPH Faculty of Law, where learning goes beyond the classroom. With 70 percent of our faculty holding doctoral degrees and many actively working as legal professionals, you will gain insight not just from theory but also from real-world legal practice. Our curriculum is current and relevant, and our strong industry connections give you access to top law firms and professional networks that will support your development throughout your studies.

Studying law here is more than just attending lectures and reading textbooks. In just three and a half years, you will complete a practical and future-oriented curriculum that not only builds your legal knowledge but also develops the mindset and values essential in the professional world. The program also offers a bundling option, giving you a special price to a Master of Laws or Notary degree. This helps you save time and take a confident step toward your career goals.

One of the highlights is the international exposure you will gain throughout your studies. You can choose between the Regular or International Class, where the global track is fully delivered in English by internationally qualified lecturers. You will work with English legal resources, join international seminars, and practice legal communication in class. Outside of academics, there are vibrant communities to enhance your English fluency, expand your network, and even explore study abroad opportunities. This is more than a law degree. It is a complete experience that equips you for a global legal career.

DISCOVER YOUR PATH TO IMPACT

At UPH, law students embark on an exhilarating journey where they are immersed in powerful knowledge, honed skills, and essential values. Graduating from this dynamic program empowers them to unleash their potential, making a remarkable impact and driving meaningful change in society through their legal professions and visionary leadership. Get ready to embrace a future where you can truly make a difference!

“My experience at FH UPH has been truly life-changing. I have learned to approach any situation with logical reasoning, grounded in facts and evidence, rather than rushing to judgment. The knowledge and values I gained at FH UPH will always remain with me throughout my life.”

BUSINESS LAW

DEGREE

Sarjana Hukum (S.H.)

Choosing the Business Law specialization means entering a program that combines a strong legal foundation with practical applications in the real world. This specialization examines key areas of Commercial Law, including contracts, taxation, banking, capital markets, and intellectual property. Through class simulations, case studies, and moot court competitions, students gain practical experience that reflects actual legal practice. Learning is also enriched through workshops, guest lectures, and internships with legal experts, business professionals, and leading companies, giving students direct insight into the professional world.

From the very beginning, students benefit from a learning environment that is both rigorous and engaging. Accredited as “Unggul,” the Business Law program at UPH distinguishes itself to employers and prepares students for a diverse range of careers. Whether your goal is to work in corporate law, capital markets, mediation, or data protection, this specialization equips you with the mindset and skills to lead with confidence and integrity. Here, students do more than just earn a law degree. They develop into business law professionals, ready to tackle future challenges with clarity and purpose.

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS LAW

DEGREE

Sarjana Hukum (S.H.)

Ever wondered what it's like to study law with a global perspective? The International Business Law specialization gives you that experience from day one. Students explore the connection between Indonesian law and international trade, cross-border transactions, and global legal systems. The curriculum encompasses essential topics such as treaties, diplomatic law, and international dispute resolution. With real case studies, legal simulations, and interactive class discussions, learning becomes both practical and meaningful for preparing you to think and act like an international legal professional.

What sets this program apart is the global exposure it offers. Students have the opportunity to participate in international exchange programs, study law in various countries, and interact with peers from around the world. Classes are also guided by lecturers with international legal experience, bringing real insight into global legal practices. Whether you aim to work in a multinational company, an international law firm, or as a legal consultant on global issues, this program prepares you with the knowledge, confidence, and mindset to thrive. It is more than a legal education. It is your gateway to becoming part of the global legal community.

LEGAL PRACTICE PROFICIENCY

DEGREE

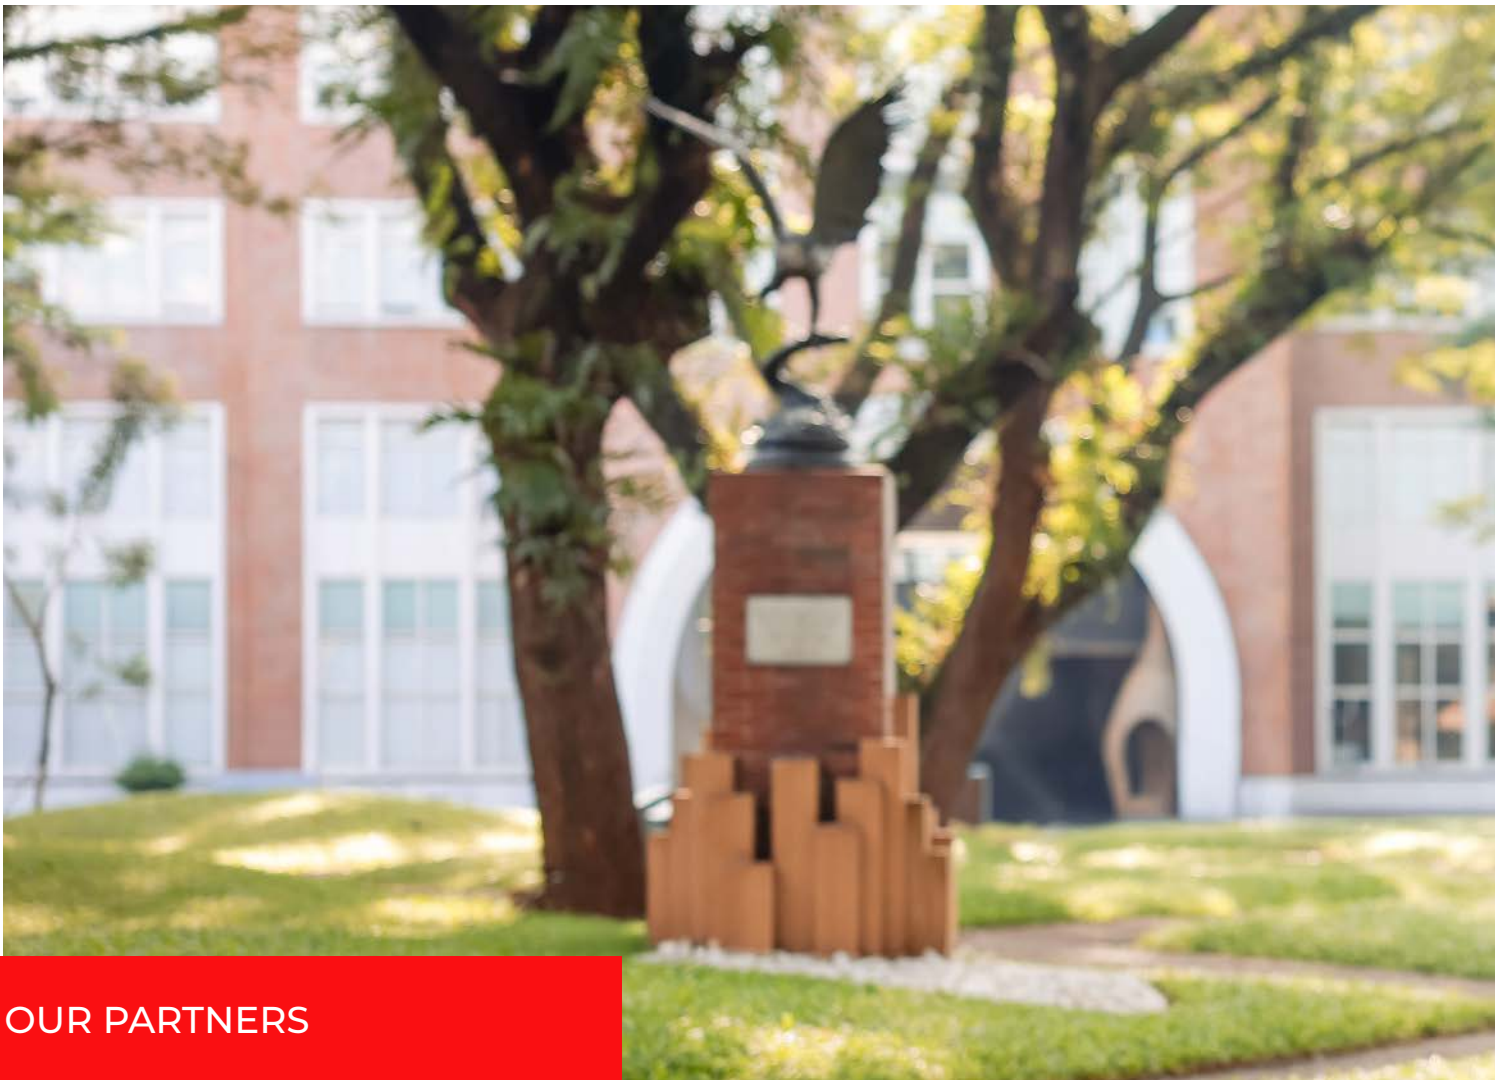

Sarjana Hukum (S.H.)

Imagine stepping into a courtroom, confidently presenting your case and tackling tricky legal issues. That's exactly what the Legal Practice Proficiency program is all about. From the very start, students dive into practical skills like legal research, drafting up case documents, and crafting solid arguments in civil, criminal, and administrative law. The classes are taught by experienced legal pros who bring real courtroom stories and insights to each session, making the lessons super relevant and impactful.

What sets this program apart is its focus on hands-on learning. Students get to take part in moot court simulations and legal clinics that mimic real-life legal situations, giving them a taste of the professional world. The curriculum covers important subjects like corruption law, Islamic civil law, and victimology, helping students gain a better grasp of the legal system. Whether you're aiming to be a litigator, prosecutor, judge, or work in government, this program equips you with the skills, mindset, and confidence you need to thrive in any legal field.
